Note.— (1) A candidate belonging to the Scheduled Castes/Tribes or back ward classes or a War service candidate will be entitled to deduct from his age such period as may from time to time be allowed by Government in respect of his entry into service under the State.

(2) For purposes of recruitment up to the 31st December, 1955 the maximum age limit shall be 27 years instead of 25 years.

Educational qualifications of candidate.

5.

No person shall be appointed to any post in the service, unless he possesses the qualifications shown against such posts in Appendix A, provided that the Advocate-General may, in special circumstances, with the previous approval of the Government appoint to any post in the service any person who does not possess the qualifications prescribed by this rule.

Method of recruitment

Posts to the service shall be filled in any of the following ways at the discretion of the Advocate-General: -

(a) by direct appointment;

(b) by transfer of an official already in the service of Government;

(c) by promotion of a member of the service, provided that the person to be appointed possesses the requisite qualification; provided further that appointment to any post by promotion or by transfer of an official employed in any of the Government

Departments shall be made strictly by selection and no official shall have any claim to appointment as of right.

Note.— In the case of direct recruitment, other things being equal, preference will be given to a candidate who has himself worked for the cause of national independence or has rendered some outstanding social or public service.

General Condition 7. In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by such general rules as may have been or may hereafter be framed by Government and by the provisions of the Constitution of India.

Part III— Conditions of service.

Number and character of posts 8. The service shall comprise the posts shown in Appendix A, provided that nothing in this rule shall affect the inherent right of Government to make additions to or reductions in the number of such posts either permanently or temporarily as may be considered necessary for the efficient working of the office.

Probation of members of the service 9. (1) Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any post specified in Appendix A, remain on probation for a period of two years in the case of those recruited by direct appointment and for one year, if recruited otherwise.

Explanation.— Officiating service shall be reckoned as period spent on probation, but no member who has officiated in any appointment, shall on the completion of one year or two years in the service, as the case may be, be entitled to be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(2) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is in the opinion of the Advocate-General not satisfactory, the Advocate-General may dispense with his services in the case of a direct appointment, or revert him to his former post, if he has been recruited otherwise than by direct appointment.

(3) On the completion of the period of probation of any member the Advocate-General may, if a vacancy exists, confirm such member in his appointment or if his work or conduct has, in the opinion of the Advocate-General, not been satisfactory, the Advocate-General may dispense with his services in the case of a direct appointment, or revert him to his former post, if he has been recruited otherwise than by direct appointment, or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders as could have been passed on the expiry of the first period of probation provided that the total period of probation shall not exceed three years.

Seniority of members of the service 10. The Seniority of members in the various grades of the service shall be determined by the date of confirmation in the post, provided that if two or more members are confirmed in the same class of posts on the same date: -

- (a) members recruited by promotion shall be senior to members recruited otherwise;
- (b) members recruited by transfer from other offices of Government shall be senior to members recruited by direct appointment; and
- (c) in the case of members –

(i) who are recruited by promotion or who are recruited by transfer from other offices of Government, the seniority shall be determined according to the seniority in the appointment from which the members are promoted or transferred, preference being given to a member drawing a higher rate of pay, and if the rate of pay drawn is the same, seniority shall be determined according to length of service, if the length of service be the same, according to age, preference being given to the older member;

(ii) who are recruited by direct appointment, an older member shall be senior to a younger member.

Provided further that if any member is reverted to his former post or is reduced temporarily and is subsequently reappointed to the post from which he was reverted or reduced temporarily his seniority in that post shall be determined by the appointing authority.

- | | |
|--|---|
| Pay of members of service | 11. Members of the service shall be entitled to such pay scales as may be authorized by Government from time to time. The pay scales at present in force are given in Appendix A. |
| Leave and Pension | 12. In respect of leave, pension and other cognate matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of service shall be governed by the Punjab Civil Services Rules and such general rules as may be framed in that regard by the Government. |
| Discipline, penalties and appeals | 13.
